For you are the one who gives and sustains life. Psalm 36:9 (NET)

Thought for today...

If you've seen the movie 'Terminator 2', you may recognise this scene, where Arnold Schwarzenegger's character, who is sent to rescue a boy that is destined to be the future hero of mankind (hmmn - 1 man as saviour of the world; I wonder where they came up with that idea?...), utters these words to the startled boy: "Come with me if you want to live."

Today, men's hearts are failing them from fear - Luke 21:26 says "Men's hearts are failing them from fear and the expectation of those things which are coming on the earth, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken." (NKJV)

There's no mistaking the fact that the world we live in now, looks a lot different to the one that we lived in just a few short months ago!

Familiar lifestyles are disappearing causing people to become anxious and angry and job losses and health problems appear to be on the increase.

As followers of Christ, we know that the only way we can continue to live in peace and with hope in this fast changing world, is to put our trust in the only One who is able to give and sustain life. Let's take every opportunity we have to encourage friends, family, neighbours and strangers to take the hand that He is extending and to receive His invitation as He says: "Come with me if you want to live..."

"Come to me with your ears wide open.
Listen, and you will find life. I will make an everlasting covenant with you. I will give you all the unfailing love I promised to David."

Isaiah 55:3

(New Living Translation)

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. John 3:17 (NIV)

"I invite the whole world to turn to me and be saved. I alone am God! No others are real." Isaiah 45:22 (Contemporary English Version)
