Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming. Matthew 25:13 (New King James Version)

Thought for today...

Have you eagerly awaited delivery of an item, only to be greeted by a card on your doormat that reads 'Sorry we missed you!'?

Returning home and finding such a card is one thing, but when one suddenly appears on the mat and you know you've been at home the whole time is another matter entirely!

Maybe you popped into the kitchen to put the kettle on, or nipped upstairs to get something, or maybe you had the TV or radio on a little too loudly and failed to hear the doorbell ringing or the knock on the door.

Sorry you missed Me!
Name: _____	Address: _____
Time: _____	Date: ____ / ____ / ____
		King of Kings

On the occasions that I have been at home waiting, and frustratingly noticed a card appear, my usual complaint (to anyone who will listen), is that the delivery person didn't ring the bell or use the knocker on the door, otherwise I would have heard them!

As true as that may be, whatever the reason, the fact remains that the delivery person has come, and gone...

As a 'sorry we missed you' card will advise of the process to reschedule the delivery, some people may not consider it a priority to actively await their package.

As followers of Christ, we eagerly await His return for the Church, His Bride. The Bible warns us: 'You also must be ready all the time, for the Son of Man will come when least expected.' Matthew 24:44 (NLT).

And Romans 13:11 tells us: 'This is all the more urgent, for you know how late it is; time is running out. Wake up, for our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed.' (New Living Translation).

Are you ready and waiting for Christ to return? Will you hear Him knocking, or suddenly notice when it's too late, the card on the mat that reads 'Sorry you missed Me'?

But the end of all things is at hand; therefore be serious and watchful in your prayers.
1 Peter 4:7 (New King James Version).
