

A P R I L 4 2 0 2 2

“Therefore you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.” Galatians 4:7 (NKJV)

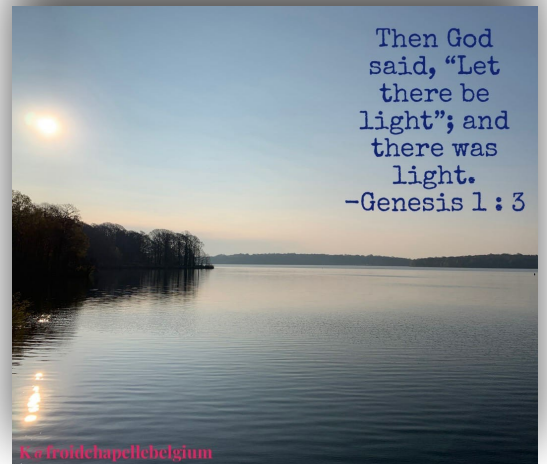

Thought for today...

Genesis 1:1 tells us that “In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.” God divided the light from the darkness, calling the light Day and the darkness Night (Genesis 1:5).

Then God said, “Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place...” These waters He called Seas (Genesis 1:9-10). ‘... God made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night. He made the stars also. God set them in the firmament of the heavens to give light on the earth, and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness...’ (Genesis 1:16-18).

God created living creatures, some to dwell in the waters, some to fly above the earth and others to walk or creep on the earth (Genesis 1:20-25).

‘Then God said, “Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness...” ‘So God created man in His own image...’ (Genesis 1:26-27).

Then God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light.
-Genesis 1:3

Ko froidchapellebelgium
g o p o u c e p r o b e l l e p e r f e c t i o n

The second chapter of Genesis 2 reveals something that still holds true today; the Almighty God, creator of the heavens and the earth invites us to partner with Him as He works in the earth!

One dictionary gives the definition of the word ‘partner’ as: ‘either of a pair of people engaged together in the same activity’. Of the word ‘partnership’, one definition is given as: ‘a cooperative relationship between people or groups who agree to share responsibility for achieving some specific goal’.

God could have chosen to name all that He had created, but instead, He allowed Adam to partner with Him in this: “Out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to Adam to see what he would call them. And whatever Adam called each living creature, that was its name.” (Genesis 2:19).

‘So Adam gave names to all cattle, to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field.’ Genesis 2:20 (NKJV).

Like Adam, we too are afforded the privilege to partner with God and work alongside Him as He brings about His plans in our relationships, homes, workplaces, churches, communities and throughout the world that He created.

‘... And whatever Adam called each living creature, that was its name.’ Genesis 2:19.

Right now, at this very moment God wants you to partner with Him as He executes justice for the oppressed, gives food to the hungry and sets captives free (Psalm 146:7). Will you?